ORDO Kalendarium Decembris 2018

Commemorations are indicated in the Ordo chart as the Secunda oration “2a” or Tertiary oration “3a” with the first words or name of the feast/saint being commemorated. Also indicated are the Orationes Pro Diversitate Temporum Assignatæ found in the Missal that are offered in Sunday and Ferial Masses.

SEASON OF ADVENT

During Advent (as in Lent) no flowers or ornaments are permitted on the altar, neither should the organ be used except if deemed absolutely necessary for singers accompaniment (though it may be employed at Benediction which is a non-liturgical function). The exception re the organ being played and flowers, is the third Sunday of Advent “Gaudete”; on this Sunday the colour “rosaceus” may be worn in place of violet, similarly on the week days when the Mass of Sunday is repeated. But not on the three Ember Days, each with their own Mass offered in “violet”. The Gloria in excelsis and the Te Deum at Matins are not said, except on feasts. When the Gloria in excelsis is not said, the form “Benedicamus Domino” replaces “Ite missa est” at the end of Mass. The Alleluia is said in the Office as usual and on Sundays at Mass, but not during Mass of the Feria. From 17 December Votive Masses and private daily Mass for the dead are not permitted. Public Requiems for Mass on day of death and/or burial are permitted.

In those places where Solemn Mass with Ministers may be offered, folded chasubles instead of dalmatic and tunicle are worn on Sundays in Advent, with the exception of the Third Sunday (rose) and on Christmas Eve (violet), when dalmatic and tunicle are worn (there being no Advent IV effectively).

Dec 8 Feast of the Conception of the BVM and the Feria of its Octave – see appendix supplement for the Mass Proper. Missa “Gaudens gaudebo” is forbidden as per CIC Supplement Canon 188. Ref the Offices i.e. Hours, employ the Common of the BVM with the Collect from the Mass Proper. Dec 18 Expatatio Partus BMV feast “of the Expectation”, Mass Proper is Missa “Rorate”, found in Missal as Votive I of Our Lady on Saturday votives in Advent/Nativity OR in the section “Missae pro aliquibus locis” on Dec 18.

SEASON OF CHRISTMAS

Every priest may, without requiring an indult, offer the three Masses of Christmas Day. It is not permitted however to offer Midnight Mass privately – even if it be a low Mass, it must be said publicly. Otherwise, a priest who can only say one Mass should say the Mass closest to the hour at which he offers e.g. early morning the “Dawn Mass” or later the Mass “of the day”. If a priest says the three Masses he must not take the ablutions at the end of the first or second, but follow the custom as on All Souls day regarding the purification of the chalice (this is so as not to break his fast). So after the first Mass having consumed the Precious Blood, he simply recovers the chalice with the Pall, bows low and says the prayer “Quod ore sumpsimus” bowing low before the altar, then washes his fingers with the lavabo saying “Corpus tuum, Domine”; the vessels and Corporal remain on the altar (the latter not returned to the Burse) until the Second Mass. At the Second Mass, at the Offertory, the chalice is replenished with water and wine in the usual way but without leaving the Corporal at the centre of the altar, again the ablutions are dispensed with until after the Third Mass when they are performed as usual. The Communicantes of the Nativity is said at all Masses on Christmas Day: at first Mass is said “in noctem sacratissimum celebrantes” at all other Masses of the day and in the Octave is said “in diem sacratissimum etc”. The Last Gospel of the Third Mass of Christmas Day is that of the Epiphany and is usually given in the Missal at the end of the Propers.

In the Octave of Christmas, each of the feasts following Christmas Day has an Octave which is commemorated at each subsequent Mass except where noted in the chart above. On the Feast of Holy Innocents the colour of the Mass is violet and penitential in character thus the Alleluia, Gloria etc is not said (the reverse i.e. red vestments and festive Propers are used on the Octave day).
