NOTA BENE

Classes of Feasts are indicated in the title of any given day by the font format: MAJOR DOUBLES i.e. 1st Class Doubles are Capitalised in Bold; 2nd Class Doubles are CAPITALISED; Doubles are Sentence-case Text (Doubles and above are feasts when the antiphons at the psalms in the Offices are said in full); Semi-Doubles are sentence case in bold and italic and Simplex feasts are simply italicised (only the opening words of the antiphons with the whole antiphon at the end).

Commemorations are indicated in the Ordo chart as the Secunda oration “2a” or Tertiary oration “3a” with the first words or name of the feast/saint being commemorated. Also indicated are the Orationes Pro Diversitate Temporum Assignatae found in the Missal that are offered in Sunday and Ferial Masses.

Of Orations “Orationes pro diversitate temporum assignata”

From Candlemass to Ash Wednesday; at Mass the second oration after the Collect is 2a. is “Ad poscenda suffragia Sanctorum” (for the intercession of the saints) which begins “A cunctis nos, quaesumus” the third oration 3a. “Contra persecutores” (for the church) which begins “Protégé nos, Domine”.

Of Ferias

On ferial days when no feast is given, the Mass of the preceding Sunday is offered but without the Gloria and the Creed and with the Preface of the Common. Additionally two more orations follow the Collect(s) as described above. A priest may at his discretion offer a Votive Mass ad libitum on a Feria day, e.g. a Requiem or a mystery or Saint, the Propers for which may be found in the Missal after the Propers of the Commons.

GREAT BRITAIN KALENDAR

Feb 8. St Cuthman of Steyning. Confessor Mass “Quis dabit mihi”

March 2. St Chad of Durham, Bishop & Confessor Mass “Sacerdotes tui”

SEASON OF GESIMA

The time from Septuagesima Sunday to Ash Wednesday partakes in many ways, but not in all, in the character of Lent. The colour of the season is purple from Septuagesima to Easter. The Te Deum is not said at matins, nor the Gloria in excelsis at Mass, except on feasts. At the end of Mass the deacon (or celebrant) says Benedicamus Domino instead of Ite missa est. In no case is the word Alleluia used at all from Septuagesima till it returns at the first Easter Mass on Holy Saturday. On all days, even feasts, a tract (tractus) takes the place of the Alleluia and its verse after the gradual. In the office, at the end of the response to Deus in adiutorium, Laus tibi Domine, Rex aeternae gloriae is said instead of Alleluia. But from Septuagesima to Ash Wednesday, although purple is the colour, the ministers use dalmatic and tunicle. The organ may be played then, as during the rest of the year. From Ash Wednesday to Easter the ministers wear folded chasubles; the organ is silent till the Mass of Holy Saturday (except on mid-Lent).
